

7th IWG World Conference on Women and Sport Gaborone Botswana 2018

Determine the Future
Be Part of the Change

After four engaging days of dialogue,
we have a 2018 IWG World Conference Legacy to share...

7th IWG World Conference
On Women and Sport,
17-20 May 2018
Gaborone, Botswana

Determine the future.
Be Part of the Change

7th IWG World Conference on Women and Sport, Botswana 2018 World Legacy “Determine the Future – Be Part of the Change”

IWG Botswana Big 5

Media: Cooperate with media, and utilise social media, to both increase coverage of women's sports and to portray women without limiting-stereotypes.

Accountability: Increase transparency regarding resource allocation for women's and men's sports in order to insure accountability and women's equality.

Representation: Insist on equitable sport leadership roles for women at all levels in governing bodies, as coaches, in administrative and decision-making positions. Persistently pursue women's sports participation and representational targets.

7th IWG World Conference on Women and Sport, Botswana 2018 World Legacy “Determine the Future – Be Part of the Change”

IWG Botswana Big 5

Research to Practice: Build evidence-based policies and practices that drive gender equality, safety, violence-free environments, and integrity in sport, including an emphasis on women's right to control their own bodies.

Communication: Build onto the IWG digital platform to serve as a hub for women's sports news, research, best practices, and organizational progress and to strategically pursue additional signatories.

7th IWG World Conference
On Women and Sport,
17-20 May 2018
Gaborone, Botswana

#IWGBotswanaBig5

Determine the future.
Be Part of the Change