Juntendo University
Faculty of Health Sciences and Nursing

For nursing care
that is sensitive to the feelings of others
The network of Juntendo University is a partnership of five faculties that provides comprehensive support to “human health.”

This network provides comprehensive support to “human health” by focusing on the whole person through making use of the different disciplines of medicine, nursing, sports, and health.